The Freiherr-vom-Stein Gymnasium is one of the oldest schools in Leverkusen. It was founded 200 years ago.

At our school there are 120 teachers and about 1200 pupils. We have many young teachers and they are really cool. Learning is fun at the FvSt.

Our school has got a big gym, a sports ground and places for playing soccer.

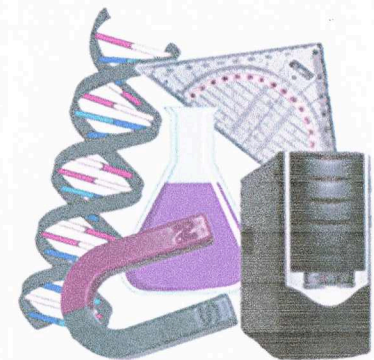

The symbol of our school is the "Steinkauz". That is a clever bird.

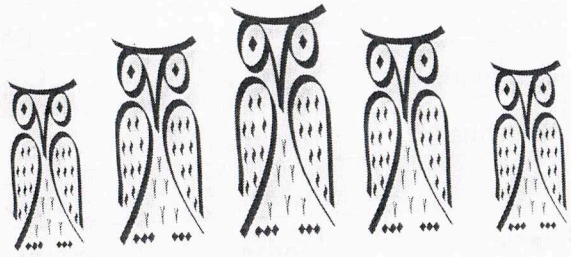

School starts at 8:10 am. After six lessons it finishes at 1:35 pm. We have lessons in the afternoon on Wednesday. There is no school on Saturday. We have got eleven <sup>6</sup> subjects.

These are: English, Latin, German,

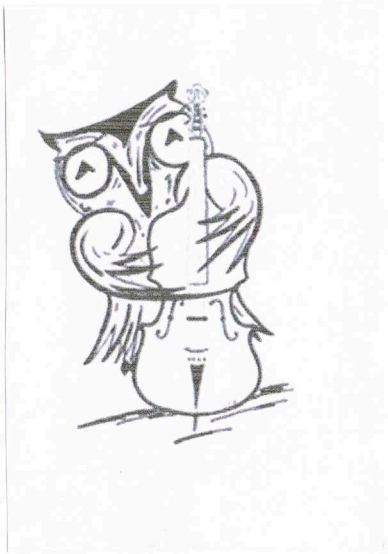

Maths,
religious education,
music,
art,
politics,

geography and biology.

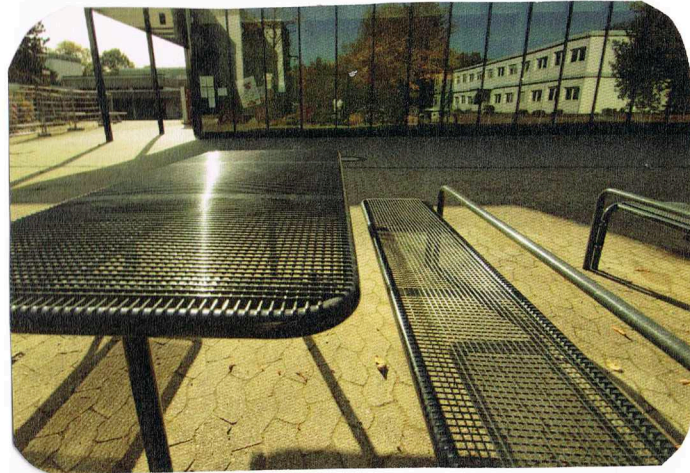

We hope to see YOU at
our school!
Remember: It's the best!

Jan Queckenberg

You can have food and drinks in the Stein Cafe.

In the huge library you can read books or look for information in the computer.

There are other activities
like orchestras, theatre group,
climbing, dancing, soccer
and many more. We also have a Big Band. It's name is
"Simply Stone."
